IN THE
ARMY
NOW
By Pvt. Buster Willis
Anti-Tank Company
325 Infantry
Camp Claiborne, La

I always thought that Everglades mosquitoes and insects were about as bad as they come along in July and August, but after a few "daylight" tropical problems in the company, I'll have to eliminate them from competition. What we call "redbugs" in Florida, but what these Hoosiers and Bluejays call "chiggers," have our insects so far outclassed for dealing out A-1 lasting misery that it would be a pleasure to get a few new "friendly" mosquito bites, especially on the dike.

These Army regulation leggings and rifle belts afford the misery-dealing little hellions a place in the kind of places they function in, best, and how they can function. If an old timer from the other war comes to walk in the woods, an army soldier he'd wear the bugs with "military training" were here by the scratching the boys' heads. And we have seen four or more weeks of maneuvering to do in these woods. Anyway, it's something to look forward to.

Still In The Kitchen.
The best story of an actual happening in the Regiment was related by one of our reporters. A Lieutenant friend of his, who is attached to another Company, actually had this experience.

A recruit, contrary to all precepts of military courtesy, came bursting into the orderly tent of his Company where this Lieutenant was seated at a desk and without removing his hat or saluting said to the Lieutenant: "Saw, Buddy, where can I find the company commander?"

The Lieutenant, taking it for granted that the recruit just hadn't been told any better, proceeded to explain the situation. The recruit, however, let's stop all this monkey business. Where the hell is the Captain?

At last reports he hadn't waked himself out of the kitchen. Imagine sitting on a "footlocker" with a portable typewriter, perched on the desk, and Saturday night's entertainment! And you pause for an inspiration that is hard to capture the essence of of men and nights with better and brighter prospects for a hangover pass in review. But with the coming

LETTERS FROM OUR BOYS WHO FIGHT AND WRITE

LIEUT. ROY GREEN, JR.
Lt. Roy Green Jr., is with the 631st Division Tank Destroyer Battalion stationed at Camp Bowin Brownwood, Texas. He writes that he is studying and teaching almost night and day and is expecting to go to another Camp for a period of training for the month of June.

JAMES VASCO ALLEN
James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Allen of South Bay and has been at sea since December 10th. He is in the Navy and is a seaman second class in the ship fitters department. A letter was just received from him dated April 24th and he says he likes it fine.

EUGENE E. HARDY
Eugene Elbert Hardy, son of Mr. Mildred D. Hardy, South Bay, has been advanced to the rate of seaman first class in the United States Navy, Naval Air Station, officials announced today.

Just called in the Navy in June 10, 1941 and received training at the Naval Air Station, Va. Naval Training Station. He has been stationed at the Navy's "University of the Air" at Corpus Christi since August 15, 1941.

British Picture Of Actual Air Raids Tonight

Three Short Pictures Released By Navy Also On Program

An hour and a half of free entertainment, as well as valuable information, is offered the public in a picture show at the High School auditorium tonight, (Friday) at 8:30. The Belle Glade Defense Council is sponsoring the show and urges that all persons, including men, women and children see it. Those that cannot attend the show at the Defense Council will be given credit on their general course if they attend.

These pictures are by far the best and most interesting ones yet shown with the Defense Council training courses. The training, in the real British picture of actual air raids and the warning system as it functions during raids, has been so in demand that the Defense Council has been unable to get it, it is here now and positively will be shown.

These official pictures released by the United States Navy will be shown. They are entitled "40 Sprinkles of Salt," "Making Off With the Plane," and "With the Afloat Fleet."

Home Demonstration Club Has Meeting

The regular meeting of the Home Demonstration Club was held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Kidder with Mrs. F. D. Stevens as cohostess. Mrs. Kidder presided over the business session and Mrs. Joe Freedlund was in charge of the program on correct table setting. She demonstrated the approved method of setting a table with considerable emphasis on the colorful trend, now being used for informal occasions. Mrs. Edna V. Barrus, home demonstration agent of Palm Beach county, gave nice ideas for making slip covers.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 15, at the home of Mrs. M. L. Campbell with Mrs. Roy A. Bair as cohostess. Mrs. V. D. Stone, West Palm Beach, will be the featured speaker. Others attending were Mrs. Hugh J. Bratley, Mrs. Thomas Gregg, Mrs. J. R. Neller, Mrs. John W. Neller, Mrs. A. S. Stollenberg, Mrs. M. M. Sabiston, Mrs. J. O. Darden.

Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Walker of South Bay announce the birth of a son, Roy A. Walker, Jr., at the Jackson Memorial hospital in Miami on Monday, May 25.

TO GRADUATE FROM JUNIOR COLLEGE

Albert Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lane of Belle Glade, will be graduated from Palm Beach Junior College at the commencement exercises to be held at the Norton Gallery and School of Art at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday, June 2. He was graduated from Palooka High school with the class of 1938 and during his college career has been outstanding in scholastically and extracurricularly.

ALBERT LANE

Albert Lane, track, baseball and tennis participation earned him his letter two years. He has held several student offices, including that of treasurer and student body this year, master and secretary of his social fraternity, Phi Da Di, and sports editor of the school paper, The Beachcomber. Lane has taken his Civilian Pilot Training while at the college.

Floridians To Join In Conserving Truck Hauls After June 1

Gainesville, Fla.—As soon as the kinks get straightened out, Florida's vast farming interests will be glad to cooperate in the recent order of the Office of Defense Transportation requiring trucks after June 1 to haul nearly all of the commodities of the state, including farm products, and coming, believes H. G. Clayton, chairman of the Florida USDA War Board. He attended a recent conference on the subject in Atlanta.

When it comes to truck hauling farm products and other commercial goods, the state is well equipped. The War Board representatives in Atlanta passed a resolution requesting that this point be cleared before the OTD order goes into effect.

An OTD representative at the Atlanta meeting said that the OTD would set up stations which would help truckers to procure return loads, and which would issue permits to return with less than a 75 percent load where it is not possible to obtain the materials to be hauled.

It was stated that trucks delivering from the farm to town will be exempt, at least for the present, but farmers will be required to work out the most economical way of doing their hauling. They must pool with neighbors, and must "stop running to town with a handful of stuff," it was emphasized.

Colored Volunteers Wanted For Navy

A call for colored volunteers for the Navy and Naval Reserve was sounded here today by Chief Carpenter's Mate Guy F. Hull, of the local Navy Recruiting Station. Those who volunteer and can pass the necessary examinations are sent to one of the large Naval Stations for training. There they will receive a complete outfit of clothes at no cost. Pay, the officer said, starts at $21.00 per month and automatically rises to $36 per month after four months of service. It is possible for a recruit to work toward an officer's cook or officer's steward at pay ranging up to $105 per month.

Volunteers may see early ship service and visit all the large ports of the world, or they may be detailed to shore duty. Interested applicants, those under the age of 17, are asked to see the recruiter in the Navy Recruiting Station, Room 231, Post Office Building, Miami, Florida. For the convenience of those residing in the vicinity of West Palm Beach, we open a recruiting station in the Post Office Building there each Friday.

Rationing Board Issues New Rules For Merchants

OPA Official Visits Here And Assists Local Board

"The rationing program is just beginning," said C. W. Scott, field representative of the gasoline rationing branch of the office of Price Administration for nine Florida counties when he visited the local Ration Board 6-5 this week. "At the present time," he continued, "it is impossible for any one to estimate what proportions our rationing may have reached even a year from now, but it is safe to say that additional articles will be rationed." Mr. Scott came here to explain rules and regulations and assist the local board which recently moved into its new office in the city hall annex.

Arthur Wells, chairman of the local board has made the following announcements: Retail stores may accept neither stamps or certificates for such purchases. Many home canners, restaurants and soda fountains will be given certificates to make purchases from the local retail stores. In making application for sugar for home canning, a letter should be presented by the chairman of the family, for five pounds annual allowance for each member of the family. Also the ration books should be presented with the letter.

The deadline has been extended from May 15 to June 15 for application for emergency reserve tires and tubes for Federal motor vehicles, and for the vehicles and common carriers operating under Interstate Commerce Commission.

The local boards are requested to report on retail and wholesale prices in each area, and Mr. Wells has asked that local sellers cooperate by leaving price tags on the commodities at the local rationing board office. The general maximum price regulation bulletin, just received by the board, provides for the fixing of prices on the cost of living items. Department and variety stores, food stores, hardware, furniture, drug stores, and other retail stores are included in the group which must file. Also, restaurants, hotels, and other service establishments are included in the group which must file. Howard Harris of Belle Glade represented his community in the committee. Howard reports the greatest conglomeration of women workers—there are seven to every man—and more new brief cases than he knew existed. It seems that one requisite for admission to any office for priorities are the boys who are the army forces, or appointments as $1.00 a year men is a brand new brief case.

Draftees Will Get Two Week Furlough

Parades and other patriotic "send off" demonstrations by the neighbors of men inducted certainly because of a new law. Service now can be planned, and the local board is now in the process of planning a procedure arranged by the War Department and the Selective Service System, it was said. "Since all of the men assembling at the local board office for their selective service, State Director of Selective Service.

The new procedure, which became effective June 15, assures a two-week furlough, at Government expense, for every selectee who is accepted by the Army.

AIRPLANE SPOTTERS NEEDED

You have admired our air service, what it has done, and what you believe it can do. Captain Kelly, General Dooley, and many others of whom you have read, make you proud of our air service.

No Belle Glade family has yet received a telegram from the military concerning a death in the family, yet but.

The armed forces of the U. S. have suffered more casualties in men and material so far than in the first war and most of them have been deaths.

The lack of planes has been the cry of the boys where most of these casualties have occurred. The armed forces have developed a system of precaution and alarm that will release 15 out of every 16 planes normally necessary to guard our own shores. But it takes every man—and more new brief cases than he knew existed. It seems that one requisite for admission to any office for priorities are the boys who are the army forces, or appointments as $1.00 a year men is a brand new brief case.

Handy Attends Fact Finding Hearing

"Big Shots" from Littleburg went to Washington recently with expenses paid to represent their neighbors and fellow farmers before a fact finding committee appointed by the Tariff Commission on Mexican tomatoes.

Work On Country Club Golf Course Started

Actual work on the local golf course was started this week and plans are being made to lay out the holes within the next two or three weeks. Forty two acres of land on the south side of the road to the dyke is being turned and leveled and the designer, Dick Wilson, of Delray Beach, has stated that he considers it an ideal location for a beautiful course. Work on the club house will start in the near future. The club house is far enough along so as not to interfere with the construction of the club house. A number of additions to the country club are being planned, such as a swimming pool for the children and room enough in the house for the members to hold their meetings. ## Meeting Held To Put Action Into Defense Council

People Will Be Told To Report For Defense Council Classes

Defense classes will be held and every person who belongs in any capacity to the Council will be notified what time the class will be held and the place he will report for instruction. The Defense Council decided last night at a meeting at the high school.

A discussion was held to find out just what was the trouble with the Defense set-up and what could be done about it. Only 10 per cent of the members of the Defense Council decided last night at a meeting at the high school.

People who have consented to accept a position and who have not taken or at least, not finished their course will be told when to report in order to finish their course. People who are not on the Council are urged to attend also. Certificates will be issued to those who have completed the classes and arrangements will be made to have some official present the certificates and appoint them to their position.

BOLLINGER WINS IN RUN-OFF PRIMARY

John E. Bollinger, West Palm Beach lawyer, was nominated as Group 1 member of the state House of Representatives by a vote of 4249 to 2786, in Tuesday's Democratic runoff primary. The vote was one of the lightest in the county's history, with less than half of the registered Democratic voters taking part. Belle Glade had less than 200 voters to register their preference.

Bollinger was high man in a field of four in the first primary but failed to get a majority. It was his first bid for the county office. Lake Lytal won the District 2 seat on the County Commission now occupied by Cecil Collins, 2,999 to 2,284.

Isolated Judas
 Again, as in the last war, we hear charges that industrialists are using this war as a vehicle for gouging the taxpayer by insisting on huge profits. What the public often doesn't realize is that although a company may make large profits on some of its contracts it may make little or no profit on other contracts.

Mr. J. A. Hartley, a director of the National Association of Manufacturers, pointed out in a recent speech that "the N. A. M. has with all its vigor denounced since the fall of 1939 any attempt to use war emergencies as a basis for profiteering. And the record shows that industry has not profiteered. The combined income accounts of 100 large manufacturing corporations show that in 1940 their net income, after taxes, was 8.6 per cent of sales, as compared with 7.0 per cent in 1941.

"Indeed, the true profit situation in the last decades has never been properly impressed on the public mind. There is no headline today on the fact that through the heyday of prosperity from 1921 to 1930 the average annual profit was only 4.4 per cent. The headline audience has never been told that during the past decade profits averaged only 1.5 per cent."

"Industry is tying no strings to victory. There are a misguided few—as the Revolution had its Benedict Arnolds—who may be more concerned with profits than with honor. I hold that these men are the termites of the house that is America. But one cannot blame a whole people for the acts of the lonely, individual traitor; one cannot blame a whole producing industry for its isolated Judas."

After The War, What?
 Everybody is going all-out to win the war and nothing will interfere with that effort—the man on the street, the factory worker, the housewife, the farmer, and the business man are showing grim determination to bring this war to a successful termination. But we shouldn't be human if we didn't sometimes speculate on what will follow.

We face a huge task in winning this war and just as huge a task in winning the peace. To win the peace, we must prepare now—only while we are concentrating on winning the war. No one wants to go back to days of depression, of idle plants, idle men and idle money.

American industry, built and maintained by foresight, isn't ignoring this problem. It is tackling it right now, along with the dozens of other problems created by war production itself. It's laying plans for a speedy change-over to increased civilian manufacturing when this emergency is ended.

Industrialists assure us that wonderful new products are in store for the post-war markets. A glass company in preparing to offer prefabricated homes costing about $3,000 that can be assembled quickly to make cheap housing available; the airplane industry promises new luxury liners, thousands of new air fields for smaller planes, and employment to millions.

Such inventions and changes, forced by the war far sooner than they would have developed naturally, are the mainstay of the widely accepted opinion that a post-war depression of monumental proportions can be averted.

As Walter B. Weisenburger, executive vice-president of the National Association of Manufacturers has said, "the development during the war production period of superior manufacturing methods applicable to peacetime production embodies the promise that we may attain in the post-war period a scale of living higher than ever before."

FIGHT AND WRITE
 biggest difficulty or obstacle to overcome is our lack of time and enough officers to train the men in the time allotted. There are still plenty of lieutenants holding down jobs of captain and major grade. Three weeks ago we had only one officer in our company—today we have five.

Except that we should know this, it might be considered censurable. Men appreciate good officers and we cannot have too many of these. Gen. Ben Lear, who spoke to us yesterday, has said that a reason ought to be given by every eligible man for his absence (100 for lost) before coming an officer. Plenty of them are being made in 90 days right now. More need to be. The bigger and better our Army, the quicker and easier our job will be done.

I hope and know that the Belle Glade Draft Board is making the best effort to send only physically fit men to the Army. I never realized how unfit a man could be and yet appear normal in civilian life. We are now asking for release as unfit of over two hundred of our recent recruits from our regiment alone. Until you see how easily these men pass out, or in what shape they hobble home from a relatively short march, they cannot appreciate the importance of sending only physically sound "no fat, no horse" or "poor foot, no soldier."

Best wishes to Lions, Rotary, Boy Scouts and all in Belle Glade. See you when its over. Fritz's wife is Co. I, 129th Infantry, Camp Forrest, Tenn.

DRAFTS MEN WILL GET
 immediately following physical examination by the Army, the General said although every attempt has been made to grant ten day furloughs upon request, he declared, there have been some instances when such requests were denied and in other cases inductees were unable to pay their transportation home. As the new system calls for the immediate release of all men who wish to go home and payment of the cost of their travel by the Army, the General asserted there would be no discrimination against any inductee. He said:

"The Army will furnish transportation meals and lodging of such reservist en route to the city in which the local board is located and from that point to the Reception Center."

"There will be no change in the present procedure for delivery of registrants to the induction station by the local board, or for the return of rejected men to the local board area from the induction station. Inducted men, or who do not desire to return to their homes will be forwarded direct from the induction station to the Reception Center."

"In case of inducted men who do desire to return to their homes the following procedure will be followed:

followed at the induction station:

"(a) The inducted man will be transferred immediately to the Enlisted Reserve Corps and will be given an order to proceed to the city in which his local board is located."

"(b) At the same time an order will be issued recalling him to active service on a certain date and ordering him to proceed on that date from the city in which the local board is located to a designated Reception Center for duty. The normal period between transfer to the Enlisted Reserve Corps and recall to active service will be fourteen days. This period may be extended or shortened by not to exceed two days in order to meet processing schedules at Reception Centers, or to prevent Sunday travel."

Discussing the elimination of injustices, General Collins said: "Many of the disadvantages of the present system will be eliminated in the new procedure. Every man who wishes to return to his home duty, without being required to establish his reasons for returning. Investigation and recommendation by the local board is no longer necessary. Reservists are released from active service at the induction station instead of the Reception Center. They travel at Government expense in local board groups under an appointed leader."

Another feature of the present system which will be eliminated by the new procedure, the General said, will be possible delay between the time a man is inducted and the time he is granted a furlough. Under the new procedure, the transfer to the Enlisted Reserve Corps will occur on the same day that the man is inducted and there is no likelihood that he will have to wait two to five days before he can return to his home as sometimes happens under the present system.

Local boards will cooperate with the armed forces in every possible way by providing a place of assembly for the departing reservists, by arranging the transportation facilities and by taking care of other necessary details such as advising the Commanding officer of the Reception Center of the route and time of departure of groups of reservists and the number of men in contingents, the General said.

 of dawn I can give vent to a luxurious yawn without the top of my head flying off and brush my teeth to get them clean instead of taking the taste out of my mouth. Looking at it from that angle, I guess maybe I'm better off.

Five To Hunter
 When this fracas is over, and my opinion is that it will be long, your Uncle will undoubtedly have lots of these four-wheel half-ton trucks and what are known as "convertibles" to sell and with Model "A" Fords getting older and scarier hunters will do well to get a little more up-to-date with one a fifties than to continue to look for the good old Model "A's."

Some of these Louisiana swamp life equals as difficult maneuvering as any part of the Everglades' hunting grounds and these vehicles plow right through them. And they are rugged, too. If you don't think so, you should ride on the board seats across the bodies of the half-tons through the woods to a "gun position." With the anti-tank guns hooked on behind like a trailer they climb over logs, go through ditches and ford the creeks with equal abandon. All this without dual wheels, for which they are equipped. They sit high up off the ground and would sure make swell "swamp buggies." But you better not figure on one for the coming season.

FLORIDIANS TO JOIN

 The new order was issued to conserve rubber and trucks and to help avoid transportation stalemates, it was declared. It was pointed out that haul hauling savings will be on a voluntary basis, at least for the present, but that if compliance fails farmers may find themselves facing stricter control of gasoline and tires.

DON'T TAKE CHANCES WITH Your Safety

In Times of Excitement, Refrain from Telephoning So that Vital Calls can have Right-of-Way

During public emergencies such as air raid warnings, practice blackouts, fires, storms, and ship sinkings, telephone lines must be kept clear for calls vital to the community's protection.

Please don't be excited by rumors and rush to your telephone, for what may seem merely a rumor to you may develop into an emergency for the telephone company if everyone begins telephoning to ask about it. Rumors may easily be started purposely to hamper communication facilities at a time when they are most needed.

In some places, a flood of calls during times of excitement has seriously hampered the work of police, fire and civilian defense authorities, endangering life and property.

So we ask that you please refrain from telephoning during times of excitement and stress. At such times use the telephone only in case of serious personal emergency. Your cooperation is essential for the effective handling of emergencies by the organizations assigned to those tasks.

CHRIST SCIENTIST

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Church of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, May 31. The Golden Text is: "The idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain" (Zechariah 10:2). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded" (James 4:7-8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Who is telling mankind of the foe in ambush? Is the informer one who sees the foe? If so, listen and be wise. Escape from evil, and designate those as unfaithful stewards who have seen the danger and yet have given no warning" (p. 571: 10-14).

PERTINENT POINTERS For Cooking Appliances

Many trouble calls and repair bills will be avoided if you make sure that:

1. Fuses and fuse clips are tight, as loose fuse contact or loose fuse clips cause heating of the fuses and early failure.
2. Unnecessary strains on cords and lead wires are avoided.
3. Plugs are always firmly and fully inserted in their receptacles.
4. Switches are wiped free of grease and are properly lubricated.
5. Rough handling and twisting of thermostats is avoided.

Plugs should be firmly inserted in their receptacles, for a loose contact is apt to cause either the plug or the receptacle to burn out. Frequently-dropped plugs weaken and break.

Watch this column each week for pointers on efficient operations and maintenance of your appliances.
